The Work Place: Project Psychic Grounds (Part 1 of 2)

One would think that life revolves around the home, love, recreation and so forth, but the truth is that much of the worlds population would agree that the workplace is the larger core of their lives. With many people spending a greater part of their lives at the workplace it's wise to mention that the work place may serve as either a source of progression in many ways or as a psychic war zone for draining you of your potential overall!

As with any relationship or surrounding, an energy field is formed. This energy field may radiate the appearance of being very negative, and volatile or charged with positive energy. Because most of us spend an incredible amount of time in the work place, it's good not to carry certain energies around such "Bringing work home". Furthermore it's also important that even at work you learn to work with the energies that be, and use them effectively to your advantage in creating a better work environment. There's no need to suffer at work with hard to deal with colleagues...like anyone or thing in nature,

"The Psychic Workout"

You know the drill... anytime people are told that you've the slightest gift of being a psychic, they ask you to give them the winning lottery numbers. But the fact remains is that as we have great athletes that are able to receive perfect scores in the Olympics yet not be perfect at every sport. The same is applicable here. Even more, why is it that everyone can accept a medical physician being the best in their given field (but not others) but a psychic must be in simple terms a GENIE??!!!! We all have to work at our personal best. For some it's easier than others however, the fact remains that to be the best in any medium of the paranormal you must devote at least the effort.

In the seriousness of what one may attain in lieu of the dedication of psychic development there are lighter moments in time where you don't have to worry about the retrogrades, worry about your ritual check list and so on., Neo (from the movie, Matrix) was told in the simplest terms.. "There is NO Spoon..." You must let go and release your inhibitions in order to

The next time you go to work think about the energy you keep around you... considering the following psychic energy boosters:

POWER WEAR - YOUR ATTIRE

- Wool: Nurturing when soft, but formal and protective when stiff
- Silk: Protective fabric shielding energy
- Rayon, orlon, nylon & polyester or all man made fabrics: Lacking in psychic energy
- Velvets, chiffons, sheer fabrics: Sensuality, mixed messages
- Prints & Patterns: Acting as a shield of protection

Ask Mona!

Q: I'm a little undecided about which of my boyfriends I should cast a spell on first. I have 4 of them and all of which really need to fit in their place for what increase your aptitude of telepathy, clairvoyance etc. Going back in time there was a simple method that a psychologist used called the Zener cards to test ones psychic ability, You too, can test yourself as just one of your exercise programs into developing the underlying gifts that may have been putting off for a while,

A Little Moment in History:

In the early 1930s, a Swiss psychologist named Zener, a partner of Dr. Joseph Banks Rhine (Rhine, Dr. Joseph Banks (1896-1980) Dr. Rhine originally planned to enter the ministry, but graduated in botany at the University of Chicago. In 1922 he attended a lecture on spiritualism by Sir Arthur Conan Doyle and became interested in the subject, an interest that was furthered when he read The Survival of Man, a book by Sir Oliver Lodge on his supposed communications with deceased persons through séances), designed a set of cards bearing five symbols which he felt were sufficiently different from one another that they would be ideal for conducting certain tests, among them extrasensory perception (ESP) tests. These symbols are: circle, plus sign, wavy lines, square, and star.

See how psychic you are!

they could do for me. Is there any way to control each one of them so that I could have them do what I want? I don't want to marry any of them so how do I make the spell precise? I pretty much just want them to be my slaves.

A: "Wow"! Is my first response! I remember when most of my queries were how could one even attract even "1" boyfriend - not to mention keeping one! What a lushious babe you must be darling! On a serious note: Psychicaly I don't really see all 4 of these "lucky" men yours for the claiming. So let's work on just the two strong attractions here...There are many who claim to be able to make a certain lover out of a "slave".

What many practitioners may not tell you or even be aware of is that such a spell also binds "YOU" to that person insomuch as you being a slave to your cause of claiming them (the subject(s)). Such spells are considered of the darker arts because this may go against ones will. (I do not believe in neither black nor white) as it all is a matter of intent). I will let you know now that spells to have a certain person enchanted by you definitely works but let's say you no longer want this person in your life and you become "tired" of your slave...would you then seek the spell "Vanquish my lover"?

If a spell is done correctly it is very hard to break! I suggest you work firstly with your womanly charms to get what you can from these suitors... Even to perform a spell on yourself to make yourself irresistible can be dangerous as you may totally attract someone that you do NOT even desire (hint). However if you are compelled to make your boyfriends at your beckoning call you may try a binding spell to keep all of your lovers but I warn you that what awaits you is a LOT of work! I don't encourage anyone to play with spells, and matters of the occult etc... However, I do encourage knowledge and your will to choose. Choose wisely, give it time and it's my prediction that by the end of year two of your candidates will have dropped out of the ring! Who knows, they may not even be worth being your slaves! Good Luck!

Spell of the Month

Simple Job Spell

Needed:|

A lodestone, or a small but powerful magnet from a hardware store.

Holding the stone or magnet, imagine vividly the kind of job you want and the feelings you will have while working there. Do not imagine names, the appearance of the workplace, or other details which might limit your choices. Speak aloud the qualifications you have for holding such a job, and ask aloud that you find it within a certain number of days. Raise power and charge the stone by dancing or breathing. The following day, have the stone or magnet with you as you make six job contacts, and make precisely six contacts a day until you have the job you desire.

You may also want to try any one of my charged spell kits for all purposes!:
